Calgary Stamp- peders to Play Here on Monday

League Leaders Have Only Won One Game Away From Home. Calgary's league-leading Stamp-peders pay their second and final visit to Coleman on Monday evening, and will oppose the Canadians in what promises to be a real ding-dong battle.

Fortunate it has been for the Stamp-peders that mill weather has forced non-artificial-ice games to move their games to the cities, giving the city teams the advantage of games at home that would otherwise have been played away from home. Stamp-peders have only won one game away from home, that early in the season against Edmonton Flyers. They have won fifteen straight games at home and have an undefeated home stand.

In their last home game, Canadians played their best hockey of the season, and it is anticipated that they will try most earnestly to take a win from Stamp-peders. A large crowd is expected to witness a good game. Tickets are on sale at McBurney's.

DAN SPROUT, DEFENCE

stands fourth in provincial hockey scoring averages and is league's highest scoring defenceman

CANADIANS DROP TWO GAMES ON ROAD TRIP

Canadians again fared badly on their road trip. On Monday evening at Olds they played the Elks on even terms during the first period, 1-1, but they wilted in the second when Elks scored four times without a reply. Final score 7-2.

On Tuesday evening at Okotoks, the Canadians trailed 3-2 at the end of the second period, but again they were thrown back on their heels in the final canto, final score being 6-2.

BENNY REDISKY, CENTRE

who scored a goal and assisted in another on Monday at Olds, and scored unassisted at Okotoks on Tuesday.

Prime Minister in Stirring Radio Address Calls for United Canada to Further Our War Efforts---This is the Only Issue Before Electors

QUESTIONS ASKED

The Canadian Weekly News-papers Bulletin asks the following questions: Is your business section well lighted? Do you decorate for special events? Many towns have arrangements for banners and flags on special trade days—and gaily colored lights for the holidays. Does "Main Street" give customers the impression of a live trading centre, or a dead town?

Canadians Get Revenge on Flyers

Hang 5-0 Whitewash on Eddie O'Keefe's Charges. Wolf Is Standout in Goal. Redisky and Gruhn Shine

Coleman hockey fans are wondering today what makes Canadians play like champions one game and then give such a miserable exhibition in another.

Last Saturday Canadians were seen at their best. They outplayed Edmonton Flyers in every department of the game and though scoring five goals without a reply could quite easily have scored many more with a little luck. The 5-0 shutout partly atoned for the severe drubbing given them by the Flyers at Edmonton the week previously.

The team as a whole, under the guiding hand of Coach Johnny Sheppard, showed a sharp improvement of form from previous games. They skated fast, back-checked well and their shooting was deadly. Woolf, Sturk and Anderson, who have been the doldrums lately, gave sparkling performances, Sanderson scoring a goal. Redisky with two goals, and an assist was the shining light on attack. Gruhn was close behind with two goals. Bill Fraser led the scorers by assists. Dunn, given a chance to show his ability during the past two games, is showing up well and gives promise of being a real puck-chaser within the next year or two. The defence of Sprout, Luney, Barneki and Brown held fast and were given more assistance from their forwards who backchecked Flyers in to the ice.

Flyers were trying the full sixty minutes and many thrilling plays were broken up at the Coleman net. They were unlucky on some occasions when they missed wide open goals, the result of the healthy bodychecks being thrown around by the Coleman defence, which kept the O'Keefe snipers continually off balance.

DEATH REPORTED OF FORMER COLEMANITE

Word was received this week of the death of Thomas Graham, of Seattle, on Saturday, January 20. Deceased is well remembered by a number of local citizens, having arrived in Coleman in company with the late John Denholm in 1912. During his eight years' residence here he worked in both International and McGillivray mines as a miner. In 1920, in company with his family, he moved to Nanaimo, B.C., and later to Seattle. Mrs. Graham and members of her family visited in Coleman two years ago. Surviving are the widow, daughters Bessie and Nettie, and son Tom.

A NARROW ESCAPE; SERIOUSLY INJURED

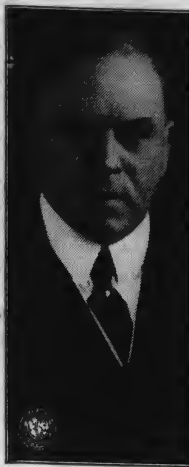

Jules Ancelot, son of the school janitor, employed at McGillivray mine Prospect as dinky driver, sustained a serious injury on Monday. It is reported his head came into contact with an overhead beam, causing fractures to his head, and the loss of several teeth. He had the presence of mind to reverse his engine when he was struck, otherwise it is highly probable he would have been killed.

Rival Leaders Appeal to the Electors

Right—Rt. Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, who has answered the challenge of his opponents by appealing to the country.

ON MARCH 26 electors throughout Canada will decide if the Liberal Party government under the leadership of Prime Minister King will be returned to carry on Canada's war effort, or the Conservative Party under its leader, Hon. Dr. R. J. Manion. It will be possibly the most momentous election Canada has experienced and the result will be awaited with keen interest throughout the Empire as well as in enemy and neutral countries. Whichever party is returned, it is safe to venture the opinion that the majority of Canadians will be wholeheartedly in favor of solid support to the British Commonwealth and the prosecution of the war.

Coleman Ratepayers Will Choose New Mayor on Monday Next

TWO COUNCILLORS AND TWO TRUSTEES ALSO TO BE ELECTED—NINE CANDIDATES FOR FIVE VACANT POSTS. POLLING 10 A.M. TO 7 P.M.

CANDIDATE FOR MAYORALTY

WILLIAM J. WHITE, candidate for the mayoralty, came to Canada from England in 1911, and to Coleman in 1921, having resided here since. He is employed at International mine, and has served on the town council since 1937, his last term being as chairman of the Works and Property committee. He was president of the U.M.W.A. local in 1926, and district board member in 1928. In his younger days he was a prominent player on the Pass football teams of Michel and Coleman.

MAYORALTY CANDIDATE

John S. D'Appolonia, well-known building contractor and general manager of Excel Builders' Supply Co., has been in business here for nearly 23 years. He has considerable interests here, having invested considerable money in buildings of various kinds, and has proved a very progressive citizen, as evidenced by his works. This is his first bid for the office of

CANDIDATES FOR COUNCIL

WILLIAM CHAPMAN, employed at McGillivray tipple, has given several years' faithful service as councillor, always being conscientious in the discharge of his duties as a chairman of various committees. For many years he has resided here, where his family have grown up from childhood, and his knowledge of municipal affairs covers quite a long period of time.

ANGELO GENTILE, employed at Coleman hotel, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gentile, who were among the earlier arrivals in Coleman. Angelo's activities heretofore have been in promoting sport, particularly baseball, and he is a strong advocate of fixing up the athletic field so that the young people will have a suitable place right at home on which to play. His education was received in Coleman schools.

GEORGE FORD, whose father was secretary-treasurer of the town since its incorporation about 1910, is secretary of Coleman Miners' Hospital board. He is employed at McGillivray mine tipple, and attended Coleman schools, having lived here since childhood.

mayor of Coleman. Energetic and enterprising, he started from the bottom of the ladder, his first job being in the local mines. His knowledge of architecture and building in which he received instruction during his years of apprenticeship stood him in good stead when he established his own business in Coleman, which has steadily progressed.

By keeping the positive and forward-looking attitude, even the seemingly impossible may be achieved.

Trustees Clean Up Year's Business

Coleman school trustees cleaned up the business of 1939 on Tuesday evening, passing for payment all current liabilities.

Trustee Sharp gave a detailed report of the business passed at the recent provincial trustees' convention, held at Calgary.

The auditor's report on 1939 finances was discussed and accepted.

A letter was received from Miss L. Johnston, secretary of the local branch of the A. T. A., asking that the board give in writing their verbal promise of issuing the June and July salary cheques in June. This was refused, and a letter will be sent Miss Johnston stating that a minute in the board's books covers the agreement made at a previous date re the issuance of June and July cheques.

Accounts passed were: Nora Easton (substitute teacher) $19.80, McElroy Drug Store $67.91, Fidelity Insurance Co. $10.00, F. Birmingham Taxi $4.00, Government Telephones $2.17, Coleman Journal $47.05, Patterson Hardware $8.35, Coleman L. & W. Co. $82.75, Excel Builders' Supply Co. $13.64, J. Lardinois $1.00, A. E. Knowles $18.00, Coleman Motors 30c, Coleman Hardware $61.10, McGillivray Creek Coal Co. (Dec. and Jan. accounts) $148.10, International Coal & Coke Co. Ltd. $83.70.

Present, Chairman Fraser, Trustees Sharp, Greenhalgh and Fleming.

CANDIDATES FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEES

R. M. GREENHALGH, well-known foreman of International Coal Co.'s coke plant, has served on the school board for several years. Long a resident of Coleman, he is fully conversant with its progress, and has taken a special interest in school affairs.

WILLIAM MARTLAND, candidate for the school trustees, has taken an active part in the Canadian Legion, and worked hard towards securing the present fine club quarters. He is president of the local branch. Employed at McGillivray mine for several years, following his arrival here from England, this is his first bid for office in municipal affairs.

JOHN LLOYD, one of the younger members of the miners' ranks, is the son of Tom Lloyd, owner of the Rialto Pool Room, and has lived here most of his life. It is his first entry in municipal activities. He is employed at International mine.

JOE JANOSTAK, son of Stephen Janostak, owner of the well-known grocery store on Main street, has lived here most of his life. He works at International mine, and this is Joe's baptism as a candidate. He attended Coleman public and high schools.

TO ATTRACT PEOPLE

Business in a small town depends not only upon the individual efficiency of the dealers, but on the collective efficiency of all the dealers in the town. If your town is to be the "home town" of the surrounding area it must be an attractive place to trade, an interesting place to be in as far as libraries and amusements are concerned, and if possible where people can get satisfactory banking, medical and other like services.

Union of Those Opposed to Aberhartism

President of Crows Nest-Pinch Creek Independent Association Will Call Convention

Capt. Ed. Donkin, president of the above association, informs The Journal that after consultation with the executive, he will name a date for an open convention at which all who desire to support an independent candidate for the provincial election may attend. The executive includes representatives from various parts of the newly-formed constituency.

President Donkin states he is fully convinced that it is of no use to talk of party politics in this independent movement, and it is time that action is taken to place a candidate in the field and build up an aggressive organization to support him.

The date of the convention will be announced in a day or two, and will be open to voters in sympathy with the movement, irrespective of party affiliations. Mr. Donkin emphatically states: "This movement is not connected in any way whatsoever with any major or other political party."

Mr. E. C. Cosstick of Bellevue is secretary of the organization.

GLEICHEN OLD-TIMER, THOS. PLANTE, DIES AT GLEICHEN

Mr. Plante, who resided in Gleichen for 32 years, was born at Three Rivers, Quebec, and came west in 1870. He homesteaded at Natalie, Manitoba, for a time, later moving to Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, where he married Miss Mary Dargie. In 1894 they settled on a homestead in Edmonton district, later moving to Fernie. From Fernie they moved to Coleman, then to Gleichen.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by five sons: Joseph of Coleman, Thomas of Peace River, Charles of Seattle, Frank of Aene and John of Gleichen; two daughters, Clara of Gleichen and Mrs. A. L. Seale of Oakland, and one sister, Mrs. A. Purisse of Rainy River, Ont.

At the time of the Boer War in 1899-1902 he brought many horses in via the Crows Nest Pass from the western States which were used as remounts for the mounted infantry, and his son Joe of Coleman relates many interesting incidents of their long treks through here before the railway was constructed.

The Path to Health

A reduction of 25 per cent. in deaths from all diseases and accidents combined in the period of the last ten years in the Dominion is a record of which the people of Canada have a right to be proud, since the statistics indicate marked progress in the fields of both preventive and curative medical treatment, and this, of course, includes the sphere of surgery.

This achievement is more particularly notable since the progress along the path to better health and greater longevity has coincided with one of the worst eras in Canada's economic history, 1929 to 1939 inclusive. It means that during a period when people have had less money to spend on luxuries than formerly they have been devoting themselves to the task of promoting better health and longer life and have been giving hearty support to public health authorities, scientists and the medical profession in their efforts towards these worthy objectives with considerable success. Surely these objectives and these results are deserving of commendation and the people of this country generally should be congratulated.

Some statistics of mortality from various diseases during the past decade among the 1,250,000 policy holders of the industrial department of one of the large life insurance companies, which may fairly be taken as representative of the people of the Dominion as a whole, show tremendous declines in the death incidence of many diseases which formerly took a very heavy toll of the populace, and show that during the past two years, 1938 and 1939, the mortality rate has been the lowest in Canadian history. In 1939 new low mortality rates for tuberculosis, pneumonia, scarlet fever, diarrhoeal diseases and accidents combined, were recorded.

Marked Progress

Public enemy No. 1 in the death rate column as recently as 11 years ago, tuberculosis, as a cause of death in Canada has dropped to third place. The death rate from this disease among the company's policyholders last year was seven per cent. lower than in 1938 and 45 per cent. lower than in 1929—an indication that this disease is succumbing to the onslaughts being made upon it by the co-operative efforts of the public, the medical profession, research and public health authorities.

Even more marked progress has been shown during the past ten years in the fight against some of the other dangerous diseases. Mortality from pneumonia, one of the most deadly diseases a few years ago, has declined in a single year by 19 per cent. and in the last ten years by 55 per cent., the company reports. Deaths from influenza have declined 70 per cent. in the decade, while a decline of 13 per cent. in a single year and 65 per cent. in ten years marks the progress of the battle against the four principal communicable diseases among children: measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough and diphtheria.

With respect to diphtheria," says the insurance company, "it is interesting to note that ten years ago it caused about as many deaths among the insured in Canada, as did the three other communicable diseases combined. To-day, deaths from whooping cough, despite a reduction of 40 per cent. outnumber those from diphtheria."

Deaths from diarrhoea and enteritis have declined 12 per cent. in one year and 75 per cent. in ten years; from puerperal conditions, some but not all of which may be attributed to a declining birth rate, 25 per cent. in the decade and fatal accidents, 30 per cent. in the ten years. No decline, however, is shown in the number of deaths from automobile accidents in the ten year period, otherwise the reduction in accidental deaths would have been substantially increased.

More To Be Done

While these facts and figures will be digested with considerable satisfaction, the war against preventable disease and death is by no means won but they do show that real progress is being made. There is a dark side to the picture represented in the increasing death rate from cancer which was 35 per cent. higher in 1939 than ten years ago. It is to be hoped, however, that the present campaign which is now being conducted to make the people thoroughly conversant with the symptoms of this great killer and of the fact that the disease can be cured if caught and treated in the earlier stages will bear fruit during the decade, 1939 to 1949. There is no doubt that thousands in Canada who have been laid in the grave, victims of cancer, and hundreds who to-day are doomed to an early demise from the same cause would be alive and healthy, had they had the knowledge that would have sent them to their physicians in time.

Cancer is not the only disease, on which concerted efforts must be put if the death rate for the next ten years is to show a corresponding, or even greater decline than the past decade. During the past ten years the mortality rates from diabetes, heart diseases, diseases of the coronary arteries and chronic nephritis have all shown appreciable rises.

While, as listed, these diseases which are becoming a greater menace to the people of Canada, are comparatively few in number, they offer a wide field for more research, more education and more co-operation between the public, health authorities and the insurance companies themselves, who, it might not be amiss to remark, are rendering a valuable service in the efforts they are making to promote health, reduce mortality rates and make available to the public health information which will help the people to help themselves to better health, and hence, greater happiness.

Simple Courtesy

Simple courtesy injected into our everyday human relations would do more to extend the spirit of good-will than all other efforts combined. Courtesy begets kindness and kindness awakens goodwill and confidence and ripens into understanding, and understanding is peace.

A Rabbit Drive

Novel Method Adopted For Assisting The Red Cross Fund
Saskatchewan residents have a novel way of raising funds for the Red Cross, reports Mary Gardner, of Manor. This is a "rabbit drive", several of which have been held in the Auburnton district, 14 miles south of Manor.

These rabbit drives usually are held on a Saturday afternoon, and each one covers approximately six miles. In the centre of this area a rabbit corral (or trap) is built of chicken-wire, square, with one side open and two wings projecting like the sides of a funnel.

At a specified time, usually around 1 p.m., men, women and girls meet for the drive. They advance on the corral from four directions, spread out in four long lines. On a signal they start walking or running toward the trap, through fields and farmyards, driving the rabbits before them. These lines are kept in place by two mounted men, who prevent one line from getting ahead of another.

Eventually, the four lines meet in the centre and the frightened rabbits are herded into the trap. When the hunters disperse a specially selected crew dispatches the rabbits as quickly and painlessly as possible. The carcasses are disposed of to butchers or fox farms. The pets eventually find their way to manufacturers of felt hats, while the meat is fed to faxes.

From five to seven cents is received for each rabbit and the proceeds of each hunt is turned over to the local Red Cross Society.

In addition to providing the Red Cross with funds, these drives rid the communities of the rodents which, in most cases have become community pests.

No Travel Rush

British Ski Enthusiasts Not Going To Switzerland This Year

Ordinarily at this season the Victoria Statip platform from which trains leave for Channel boats is jammed with people and luggage and bundles of skis, all heading for snow and sunshine. This winter the golden age of the Swiss hotel-keepers seems to have come temporarily to an end as far as British visitors are concerned; after a recent snow-fall people merely waxed their skis and took them out to do a few wistful turns on the mild English slopes.

Even in the face of such a depressing business outlook, the clerks in Thomas Cook's Berkeley Square travel office are successfully preserving that air of polite detachment which they have cultivated so carefully for years. A young woman who had somehow contrived to secure a permit to leave the country went in there the other day and broke the cathedral hush of the place by asking, in an casual voice, as she could manage, how to get to the Swiss skiing country. The clerk simply nodded, reached for the proper travel folders, and said, "Certainly, Madam. May I suggest that you go via Paris?"—London Letter to The New Yorker.

Royal Air Force Fights Off Nazi Planes Attacking Ships

London. The Royal Air Force, fighting off German bombers attacking British and neutral shipping up and down 400 miles of the east coast, downed three Nazi planes in the fiercest air battle near England since the war's start.

It was stated that nine vessels were attacked during the week-end air raids, but German claims that 14 vessels were sunk were pronounced by authoritative British sources as "absurd".

Six of the ships attacked reached port as Britain pined together the story of the hardships inflicted by an estimated dozen German raiders on coastal shipping.

Berlin admitted three German raiders failed to return to their bases.

British authorities, revising a previous estimate of 20 German raiders, said that 12 planes "at most" took part in the forays and since three were downed it would have been impossible "for so small an attacking force to sink 14 ships."

Bodies of three German airmen, one of them wearing an iron cross, were washed ashore at Drubridge bay in Northumberland. They were believed to be the crew of a German bomber shot down off Tyne-mouth Saturday.

The British vessel Harlech Castle rescued four of the crew of another bomber shot down in the North Sea. One German died aboard ship and five of the German crew was drowned.

The crew of eight from the 400-ton British ship Harley arrived at an east coast port and being rescued by a fishing boat guided to the scene by a Royal Air Force plane.

Survivors said "the bomber was pretty decent" to give them time to take to a lifeboat.

The 5,625-ton Dutch ship Laertes reported a successful fight by 100 crewmen against fire which swept the ship after she struck a mine in the English channel.

The Laertes reported she was proceeding at half speed after the crew, which at first took to the boats, had climbed back on board and put out the flames. No one was reported hurt.

A tugboat was on its way to help the crippled vessel, which was en route from the British contraband control base at Weymouth.

Admitted Duty Free

Exemption Arranged For Parcels Going To Men Overseas

Ottawa.—Postmaster-General Hon. C. G. Power announced arrangements have been made with the British government for gifts, sent to members of the Canadian Active Service Force or to individual Canadians serving in British units, to be admitted to the United Kingdom free of duty.

Parcels for members of the British troops in France also will be admitted duty free if posted by private individuals.

Previously the arrangement had applied only to Christmas parcels.

Britain Is Preparing To Meet Any Enemy Attacks From The Air

London.—The men who direct Britain's air defence have rushed preparations to meet any German attack they believe may develop with improving weather and longer days of spring.

Discussing British aerial progress, an information aviation source said the new Defiant fighter could fly alongside a formation of enemy bombers and "take them with gun-fire from nose to tail".

"There is evidence the Germans are pressing construction of fast, long-range bombers," this source said.

"A new medium-sized high-speed bomber now being produced in Germany is likely to be used in considerable numbers in any full scale air attacks the Nazis may attempt."

The new German plane is described as the JU 88, a twin-motored Junkers built primarily for speedy performance at high altitudes. It carries a crew of three or four and three guns—one in the nose and one

Casualty List

British Army Has Lost Only Fourteen Men On Western Front

London.—The British army has lost only 14 men in fighting on the Western Front since the Allies declared war on Germany. The war office in London revealed the figure in its first casualty list of the war. The Leicestershire regiment, engaged in patrol duty on the battlefield, suffered most of the action. Three of the regiment's men were killed and 11 wounded.

One woman and 757 officers and men were listed as killed, wounded and missing in non-belligerent causes during the war. The woman is E. F. Davidson, staff nurse in the Queen Alexandra's Imperial nursing service. The announcement said merely that she died.

War Secretary Stanley said that most of the deaths had been due to accidents and disease. In fact more deaths were due to road accidents than disease.

Want Canadian Airmen

Finnish Army Wants Men Experienced In Northern Flying

Toronto.—The Finnish army was reported in the market for experienced Canadian airmen, particularly those with experience in northern flying conditions.

While no official statement was forthcoming from Finnish consulate officials here, it was learned the Finnish army would welcome enlistment of experienced bush flyers ineligible for the Royal Canadian Air Force because of age and educational requirements.

It is understood no actual enlistments will take place in Canada. Applicants will be supplied railway fare to New York, from where, if they meet requirements, they will be given passage to Finland. Until they enlist in Finland they will be under no compulsion.

Prime Minister Chamberlain Declines Against Appointment For Britain

London.—Prime Minister Chamberlain has decided against the appointment of a cabinet minister charged with the special job of supervising the economic side of the national war effort.

The prime minister is expected to make an announcement on the subject of Commons on Feb. 12 when the Labor party's resolution urging appointment of an economics minister will be debated.

Available At All Times

London, Eng.—Whitehall, London's equivalent to that all-inclusive term "Parliament Hill" which designates official Ottawa, has become a huge dormitory as a result of the war. Leading ministers of the war cabinet either sleep in their departments or nearby and are available at any time.

British Ship Bombed

Eighteen Survivors Are Rescued By A Dutch Motorship

Flushing, The Netherlands.—Eighteen survivors of the 1,178-ton British steamship Highwave, two of them wounded by machine-gun bullets, reached here to tell how a German plane dropped 20 bombs at her off the British coast before sinking her with a direct hit.

The ship roared over the Highwave four times, they said, dumping five bombs each time. On the second dive, the plane turned its machine-guns on the boat.

The Highwave sank in four minutes. The crew stuck by the ship until she was hit. All were picked up.

Crewmen of the Dutch motorship Rian, which brought the survivors to port, witnessed the attack. They said the explosions of the bombs lifted the Rian four feet in the water. The Dutch boat was not attacked.

Using Former German Ship

Freighter Captured By British Being Manned By Canadian Crew

Halifax.—A crew of Canadians has been recruited to man the British freighter Poland, a German ship until her capture by a British cruiser in the Pacific ocean several weeks ago.

The 4,930-ton Poland, formerly the Dusseldorf, was captured by the British ship of the North Sea, N.S., with Noah Rowe of Montreal as chief officer. Most of her crew of 34 will be Nova Scotians.

The freighter was taken over by the British admiralty after the cruiser Despatch ran her down off Chile. She was taken to Hamilton, Bermuda, through the Panama canal after the German government had protested unsuccessfully against her passage through the canal. She was renamed after Commodore Poland, commander of the cruiser, that captured her.

Anti-Submarine Craft

Orders Given For Ships For Canada And British Navy

Ottawa.—Additional orders for units of the fleet of 46 steel anti-submarine craft being constructed in Canada for the Canadian and British navies have been given shipyards in Kingston, Ont., Collingwood, Ont., and Port Arthur.

These orders will have an approximate value of $10,000,000 which in addition to orders given Quebec yards announced earlier this week, amounting to $13,200,000.

Report Crews Safe

London.—On the basis of German radio announcements and messages received by relatives, it is now believed that the entire crew of the British submarines, Starfish and Undine, sunk recently while on "hazardous duty" in German waters, have been saved and are imprisoned in Germany.

German Sub Destroyed

London.—Sinking of the 5,062-ton British steamship Vacille in a convoy by a German submarine and the subsequent sinking of the submarine by a British flying boat was announced. This was the submarine Prime Minister Chamberlain reported destroyed in a speech recently.

Attack Hertzog Campaign

Prime Minister Smuts Says No Election In South Africa

Cape Town.—Prime Minister Smuts defended the government's emergency powers bill in the assembly and said there was no comparison to be drawn between Cadeia's coming elections and the political situation in South Africa.

Opposition members had hinted General Smuts should go to the people as Prime Minister King was doing in Canada.

"In Canada parliament had nearly completed its life and the government, therefore, decided to go to the people," the prime minister said.

"But in South Africa the general election which was held little more than a year ago led to the creation of a new parliament and the return of a great party, and that party itself had decided on Sept. 4 that this country should join in the war."

Attacking the Hertzog campaign for a separate peace with the Nazis, W. B. Madley, labor minister, said the very idea of such a peace filled him with "horror" and was inconceivable.

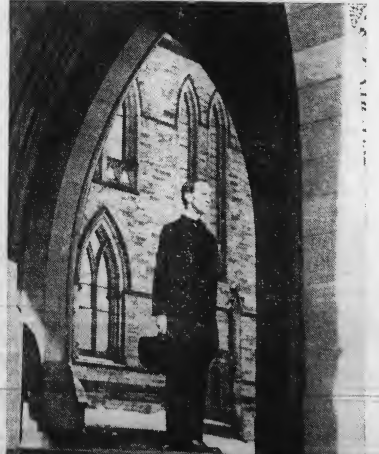

Return To London

Large Number Of Evacuated Children Have Gone Home

London.—Walter Elliot, minister of health, informed the House of Commons that 36.8 per cent of the children removed from London to safer areas during the early days of the war had returned to their homes. He did not answer a question as to whether he would consider making removal of children from London compulsory.

Home Secretary Sir John Anderson disclosed that 415 aliens had been interned in Britain at the start of the war, and that 554 others had been interned after examination by tribunals.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL OPENS PARLIAMENT

Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, opens Canada's first full war-time Parliament. It was one of the shortest sessions on record, as Premier King decided "to go to the country" to get a new mandate from the people.

Red Cross Donation

Miss Ruth Draper Contributes $16,000 As Result Of Benefit Performances

Vancouver.—Miss Ruth Draper, internationally prominent elocutionist, will turn over $16,000.28 to the Canadian Red Cross Society. It was announced here as she concluded a series of benefit performances throughout Canada.

This figure represented the net receipts of a four-week tour from Montreal to Vancouver. Gross receipts amounted to $35,587.50.

As local Red Cross units collected an additional $2,150 in profits through Miss Draper's appearances, her contribution to the society will be over the $18,400 mark.

Miss Ruth Draper's tour will continue for another 10 weeks in the United States, including performances at Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and New York.

Should Join Forces

Former Kaiser Wilhelm Says Germany Should Help The Finns

New York.—Former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany has written his friend and biographer, Poulton Bigelow, that he believes Germany, Great Britain and France should stop fighting each other and join Finland against Soviet Russia.

His letter, made public by Bigelow, was mailed Jan. 16 from Wilhelm's retreat at Doorn, Holland.

"The magnificent stand of the Finns has smashed the alibi of Bolshevism and set people thinking—with the result that the wish for peace is gaining ground," he wrote. "The belligerents should stop fighting and join their forces to help the Finns. They should fight in one line to rid the world and civilization of Bolshevism."

Report From Royal Mint

Over 21,000,000 Canadian One-Cent Pieces Issued During 1939

Ottawa.—More than 21,000,000 one-cent pieces were issued at the Royal Canadian mint during 1939, a report from the mint showed.

Total value of all coins issued was $3,329,632, including 1,220,732 $1 pieces, 288,000 50-cent pieces, 3,469,600 quarters, 5,619,000 10-cent pieces, 6,420,000 five-cent pieces, and 21,460,000 one-cent pieces.

Agreement Reached In Regard To Broadcasts Of Political Speeches

Ottawa.—The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation announced completion of an agreement between CBC and the four political parties in regard to broadcasting of political speeches during the coming general elections campaign.

Total free time will be 12½ hours, divided among the parties, Liberal, Conservative, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation and Social Credit.

The 12½ hours free time is for broadcasting over the national network of the CBC, though the various parties may purchase time through private stations for local and provincial broadcasting purposes.

Allotment of national network time over CBC gives the Liberals 5½ hours, Conservatives 4½ hours, C.C.F. 1½ hours and Social Credit 1½ hours.

Following two days of conference, representatives of the CBC, the Canadian Association of Broadcasters, and the four parties agreed to set up a continuing committee to consult upon application of the principles agreed upon.

The committee, representing the political parties, the CBC and the C.A.B., will be in daily session in Toronto. A similar committee in Montreal to deal with the particular problems of the French networks is contemplated.

Standing of the various parties in parliament at dissolution, number of candidates in the field and the popular vote at the last general election were among factors involved in the allotment of time to the four parties.

"It is recognized," said the CBC statement, "that arrangements for broadcasting during the election

Belgrade. The permanent council of the Balkan Entente closed its three-day annual meeting Sunday night with a pledge of common action to safeguard the "rights, independence and national territory" of the member states—Rumania, Turkey, Yugoslavia and Greece.

A communique issued at the close of the conference emphasized the need for increased economic collaboration among the Balkan states.

The statement repeated their determination to maintain peace, neutrality and friendly relations with their neighbors, and announced extension of the Balkan pact of friendship and co-operation for a new seven-year term as from Feb. 9, 1940.

Well informed observers believed the friendly spirit of the discussions carried on here indicated the entente countries would unite, if the occasion warranted it, to resist an attack against any one of them.

Praise given Italy in a speech Saturday night by the Yugoslav foreign minister, Aleksandar Cincar-Markovic, was not repeated in Sunday's communique, nor was his specific comment that Bulgaria and Hungary have contributed to the maintenance of peace. He apparently referred to reports that territorial claims of these countries against Rumania would not be pressed under present critical circumstances.

Wants Land Returned

Hungary Urges Revision Of Boundaries Established After Last War

Budapest.—Count Stephen Casky, Hungary's foreign minister, was reported on good authority to have informed the parliamentary foreign affairs committee that Hungary is doing nothing to provoke trouble, but will not relinquish what she considers her just claims for revision of boundaries established after the last war.

Casky met the committee at a private session with the members pledged to secrecy. He was reported to have represented Hungary's attitude toward Rumania is extending a friendly admonition to come to terms over Transylvania now and thus win Hungary's support.

Transylvania, an area of more than 22,000 square miles, was the extreme eastern portion of the old Hungarian kingdom until 1918, when it was added to Rumania.

which would deprive all but the establishment of the right to broadcast on a national scale might be unjust. On the other hand, it is felt that network time should not be made available for every new political movement which might choose to enter the arena, however little it might represent the thought and feeling of the people.

"Accordingly, certain conditions must be fulfilled by new parties desiring to secure free time on the national network. No exact definition is imposed, but it is suggested that eligibility will be determined by considerations such as breadth and range of policies on national issues, national leadership, extent of organization and number of nominated candidates to enter the party, 61 and in at least three provinces, approximately one for every four constituencies.

"Free time allotted to new parties fulfilling such conditions would be over and above the amounts given to the existing parties, and therefore would not affect the selection which has already been made and agreed."

As to paid political broadcasting, the statement declared it is to be confined to the local and provincial distribution through privately-owned stations, except where, as in the case of Chicoutimi (Que.), the CBC station is the only outlet giving local coverage.

Radio censorship regulations laid down under authority of the Defence of Canada regulations stipulated that all political broadcasting must be done from a studio only after a text of the speech previously submitted has been approved by censor.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

WHY HOME INDUSTRY SHOULD BE SUPPORTED

AN important point local governing bodies should remember is this: Local merchants and business men pay the highest taxes, on their business property, on their residence property and on their stock, in addition to which are provincial licenses in various forms. Any business which they can therefore consistently place with local merchants would be only fair, for by turning business elsewhere, they not only set a bad example, but make it more difficult for the home town merchants to meet their already high tax bills. The impression that merchants make big profits is not borne out by the facts. Many work long hours to break even, and give employment to local people. In addition many are given the privilege of running credit accounts, entailing a percentage of loss which is unavoidable because some do not honor their debts and take advantage of local merchants. For heaven's sake, do not penalize the local business houses by giving business to firms which contribute nothing towards the cost of our streets, our schools, and various community enterprises.
The businessmen do not often raise their voices in protest, but there may be occasions when for their own protection they may be compelled to do so. To build a town and make it a better and more progressive place in which to work and live, it is necessary that local business and industry be encouraged.
Let us be consistent in matters of this kind.

If we want a run-down-at-the-heel-town, with shopping facilities deteriorating instead of improving, there is a quick way to do it—but we do not believe the majority of taxpayers would like it. Let us get a broader vision of what our town might be, and work with that end in view, for no outsiders are going to help build a bigger and better town.

We must work together. There is scope for greater things in Coleman by greater co-operation.

TO most people, which includes those who are 100 percent. in favor of Canada's furtherance of the Empire's war to stamp out Hitlerism, and frightfulness and bloody murder on the high seas, there is only one issue in the Federal election. Help to win the war by supporting the government with your vote.
Premier Aberhart's election is issue of a government chartered bank for Alberta can well be forgotten while the Empire is engaged in a life-and-death struggle against attempts at world dictatorship. The puny mutter-ings of our Federal S.C. member sound like a tin whistle trying to make itself heard amid issues of far greater importance to Canada and the Empire. Remember Czecho-Slovakia, Pol-

TRADE PROMOTION is the subject of an interesting article in Canadian Weekly Newspapers Bulletin, written by Allen E. McGowan. Here are a few extracts which are of importance.

Competition today is not so much between merchants in the same towns as between communities. The towns which have recognized this and have co-operatively capitalized on this knowledge are one step ahead of those towns which have felt themselves self-sufficient.

The people in surrounding areas think well of your town first because of your churches and your schools. A good ball team, a good orchestra or a good band add to the attraction of your town.

People are seeking entertainment and amusement in addition to their merchandise purchases and the town that will provide this will profit by more of these purchases. It behooves merchants associations to take note of this and help provide this recreation. Make your town alive and attractive and your town will be the home town for people in your section of the country.

Display of goods, friendly salesmanship, advertising, are all factors in successful merchandising.

It Is Important That Canadians Demand a Canadian Fuel Policy

CANADIAN Coal operators have for many years endeavored to impress on Ontario retailers the folly of relying on foreign imports of coal. The state of confusion and bitterness in Ontario today arising out of the American anthracite price war is ample proof of our contention that such reliance on foreign interests and supplies is costly and disappointing.

Shipments of coal from foreign lands are uncertain by virtue of international disturbances, strikes, transportation difficulties, embargoes and other adverse circumstances over which the Canadian Government can have no control. These problems face us now.

Canada cannot experience an actual coal shortage by reason of her vast resources of this commodity but it is equitable to expect Canadian mines to serve as a safety-valve against the day when foreign supplies are not available? Should Central Canadians expect the Western operators, with millions invested in their plants and holdings, to forever provide them with insurance against rising costs of American coals?

PEE-WEE HOCKEY

The Pee-Wee Hockey League schedule officially started on Sunday, February 4th. Competition was keen and the games provided good hockey, although the slow ice slowed up play considerably. Final scores were:
Italians 2, Legion 1.
Elks 3, Polish 2.
Italians 4, Pattinson's 1.
In the Midget game Shamrocks defeated their rivals, Slovaks 3-0. In view of the fact that these youngsters provide such close checking, spirited hockey displays and are worthy of good support, fans are reminded that each Sunday the Pee-Wee League Schedule begins at 2 o'clock.

GOVERNMENT INCREASES TAX ON TOWN

Despite Premier Aberhart's repeated promises that Albertans were to be taxed less after he came into power, the town council was advised that the equalized assessment of the town had been raised from $250,000 to $270,000, thereby requiring the payment of an additional $60. The town had been paying $750, now it is increased to $810. In addition local business places have had to pay additional provincial licenses—for what? To help pay the increased army of government employees and officials. "The Records Tell the Story."

MINERS TOO GOOD FOR BELLEVUE

There remains little doubt as to which team rules supreme in Pass intermediate hockey. On Thursday night the Bill Cole sponsored Bellevue sextet took a merciless trimming from the Miners 14-4. Practically every member of the local team scored, while Brambra scored three times for the visitors. Playoffs are expected to start within the next two weeks. The locals will no doubt go far, and might probably win the Alberta title, which they have set as their goal. All that is lacking is support games.

The Churches

United Church Calls People to Day of Prayer

Attention is drawn to the World Day of Prayer which is being observed on Friday evening (tomorrow). On this occasion the women of all Protestant churches gather for a service of intercession. The service will be held in the United Church at 7.30 p.m. Every Protestant group in the town will be represented and will take some specific part.

This will be Coleman's observance of a world-wide expression of a unity that underlies the many denominational differences between the churches. For this occasion these differences will be set aside in view of the great spiritual needs of the times.

Last year there was an attendance of fifty. There should be a much greater attendance this year in view of the temper of the times. This is an invitation to every woman in Coleman to attend. The offering is part of a special fund from which Christian work of many kinds is assisted. It does not go to the work of the United Church.

Preparations Being Made for Red Shield Drive—$1500 Objective for Crows Nest Pass

Lt.-Col. and Mrs. R. T. Spooner, provincial leaders of the Salvation Army in Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba, accompanied by Brigadier L. Uraki, divisional commander for Alberta, were Pass visitors on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Spooner addressed a group of women in the Salvation Army hall in the afternoon. The colonel and brigadier met a small group of business men at a luncheon, where the subject of the National War and Home Service Campaign was discussed. The colonel revealed that of the $75,000 Alberta quota, the Pass towns had been asked to contribute $1500. He spoke of the favorable reception of the Salvation Army caissons, both in Canada and overseas, and also made mention of two former Coleman officers who are now engaged in this work, namely, Capt. A. Fitch and Adjutant C. Meakins.

A bright, cheery public meeting was conducted at night, which was full of variety and interest. Mrs. Spooner contributing vocal items, while the colonel delighted all with his concertina solos. The Coleman Singing Company also assisted.

Sunday, February 11th, marks the Young People's Annual at the Salvation Army, when suitable awards will be presented to the Sunday School scholars in the afternoon. Parents and friends are invited to attend this meeting, which begins at 3 p.m.

The Salvation meeting, commencing at 7.30 p.m., will be conducted by the Young People's Corps Cadet Brigade. We extend to all a hearty welcome.

Your Newspaper

Is the Representation of Your District That Reaches Out Beyond the Boundaries of the Townsite.

Your community is often judged by the class of newspaper that it supports. It is your newspaper, and the newspaper of your community is published according to standards made possible through the support that you give it.

It has services to sell for cash, and this cash makes its publication possible. This cash is spent to give you better service. It is seldom that a newspaper puts this money in the bank, in nearly all cases it goes back in giving service to the public.

Use the services that your newspaper has to sell, and watch your newspaper become a better influence for the promotion of the district.

Local News

Mrs. George Derbyshire brought to the office an interesting relic of the old Allan Line Royal Mail Steamships, which a quarter of a century ago and before brought many people to Canada from the British Isles. It was issued by E. W. Jones, 112 Elliott Street, Tyndesley, and states that there is "regular fast services from Liverpool, Londerry, Glasgow, London and Havre, to Canada, on turbine triple-screw and fast twin-screw steamers" (better known as propellers instead of screws). Another interesting item states: "Wanted in Canada—farmers, farm-labourers, domestic servants, and men willing to learn farming—good wages."

HAS YOUR DOG A TAG?

The annual checking over of dogs is now in progress by Constable William Antel, and he has tags and license receipts for those who think well enough of their dogs to see they are placed in good standing. Otherwise, it will mean the dog-catcher and a sudden death, for if strays are allowed to multiply, they become a nuisance, by day as well as by night. Most people love dogs, but not when they hold a concert in the still, calm hours.

SCHOOL RATEPAYERS MEETING FRIDAY EVENING

Ratepayers of Coleman School District are reminded that the postponed statute council meeting will be held in the school council chamber on Friday at 8 p.m. It is important that ratepayers should attend to hear the reports of the chairman and the committees, for our schools are the most important institutions, and as such demand your interest and support.

RED CROSS NOTES

The following donations received in January are greatly appreciated:

Summit Lodge No. 30, A.F. & A.M. $20.00
First Catholic Slovak Union 10.00
Mrs. Tom Blower 1.00
Mrs. M. Herman 1.00
Sincere thanks are extended to the public for their generous response to the Waterton Rose tag. $46.65 was raised. The Waterton park branch will receive 25% for their work in making the flowers. We wish to especially thank the members of the Junior Red Cross who donated their services, and Miss A. Yuill and Miss G. Leeg who attended to the collections.—L.I.G.

FROM PROFESSIONAL SWIMMER TO MISSIONARY

Among the younger people here it will be of interest to know that Miss Marie Sharkey of Calgary, who a few years ago was swimming instructor at the Girl Guides' camp at Rock Lake, has decided to go to the Fiji Islands as a medical missionary among the lepers there. She stated that her decision to engage in this work was arrived at on her visit to Australia at the time she took part in swimming competitions there. She met two lady missionaries and became so impressed with meeting them and talking over the work, that she decided she, too, would engage in this worthy work.

HE, PAINTS PICTURES

Fred Founda, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce office, is a gent of varied talents. He sings, tells stories, counts cash with lightning rapidity while he tells a story, but, most spectacular of all, he paints. Evidence of this is seen at the comfortable club room of the Canadian Legion. Here he has reproduced one of Captain Bruce Bairnsfather's cartoons, of Bert, Alf and the Better 'Ole. A fine painting of King George is seen as a colonel of the Grenadier Guards, while a more humorous one is that of a sentry challenging, while on his back is a bag of loot which evidently has been recovered from somewhere behind or in the lines. As the members sit and sip their beer, they gaze on Freddy's paintings, their thoughts carried back to the locale which some of the pictures portray. His work is appreciated by the Legion members, for it gives a nice appropriate touch to the soldiers' club.

SEVEN FORMS OF GOVERNMENT

These will add to the general confusion about various forms of government:

Capitalism—

You have two cows; you give one to your neighbor.

Communism—

You have two cows; you give both cows to the government which gives you part of the milk.

Fascism—

You have two cows; you keep both cows and give the milk to the government which lets you buy part of it back.

American New Deal—

You have two cows; the government shoots one cow, buys the milk from the other cow, and pours it down the sewer.

Nazism—

You have two cows the government shoots you and takes the cows and sells the milk.

Capitalism—

You have two cows; you sell one and buy a bull.

Social Credit—

You shoot the bull.

Blaimore Midgets Defeat Coleman 6-5

Playing their first home game on Tuesday evening, Coleman X-L's went down to a 6-5 defeat to Thompson's Blaimore Midgets. The locals displayed plenty of power but better teamwork aided Blaimore in its victory.

The game produced very close checking hockey. When the midget playdowns arrive these rivals for the C.N.P. midget championship.
